Description:

Each episode of "Gina D's Kids Club" is developed with guidance from Dr. Janice K. Battenberg and Dr. Mary Beth Leidman, two highly respected educators. The main character, Gina D, is a fun-loving and positive adult female role model, who connects with her young viewers in the same manner that children relate to a young teacher. Each show concludes with Gina D writing a letter to her Grandmother to review the educational highlights of the day's events at the clubhouse. Scripts are designed to promote actions that support interpersonal skills such as: helping others, negotiation, cooperation, sharing, and tolerance. Gina D and her whimsical clubhouse cast demonstrate these positive attributes to a culturally diverse group of children. Each episode has a theme designed to develop self-image, social, math and reading skills in young children, and an ending (Gina's letter to Grandma) that reinforces those educational objectives. Children are not only educated, but are entertained by a cast of whimsical characters which include Simon Wannabe, Mister Pockets, Miss Millie Muffin, Pierre D'Artist, TV Ted, and Doggy Brown.
